Dear Parents/Carers

On Thursday 5th March we will be celebrating 'World Book Day' at Fitzwaryn and we can't wait!

This year, we would like to celebrate our love of reading at bedtime and are inviting everyone to come to school dressed in their pyjamas, onesies, dressing gowns etc.

Our focus on this special day will be picture books and we have lots of wonderful books to share with the pupils. We have lots of exciting activities planned including a walk into Wantage on the Monday or Tuesday prior to 'World Book Day' to choose our free book.

We are also going to be running a competition over half term. We are challenging pupils to bring or send in a photo of themselves reading to someone. It can be to a family member, a friend or even a pet - the more imaginative, the better! The winner will be awarded with £10 book vouchers for 'The Madhatter' in Wantage. We appreciate that not everyone is able to easily get to Wantage so we will take the winning pupils down and help them to select their books during a school day. If you are unable to print the photos at home, please email them to the office. The closing date for entry is Friday 28th February.

Reading different books every evening in preparation for World Book Day is a fantastic way to get everyone excited! So get thinking and reading! We look forward to seeing your child dressed up for the special day on Thursday 5th March.
