Dear parents, carers and students,

I hope that you have all managed to relax a little over the unusual Easter we've just had and that you are all well. So, here we are at the start of Term 5 and we all need to start again with our home learning and most importantly, looking after ourselves and our loved ones.

It has been a real treat catching up with all you on the telephone and hearing your news! I am glad to hear that your independent living skills are not going to waste as I receive reports of the cooking, baking, cleaning, bed changing, gardening and general helpfulness at home going on. Lots of you are continuing with your reading and sharing books with your families- fab! Other activities include learning different languages (including Cockney rhyming slang), tandem bike rides, watching films and National Theatre screenings, home exercise programmes, investigating and planning new adventures for when we can travel again, singing, Skyping family and friends, art projects and playing with pets. I wonder if you can match up anybody with this list?! I'm really looking forward to seeing the evidence of all this once we can be together again.

As you know, home learning suggestions are on the school website and I'll be adding some more ideas in the next couple of weeks. Do what you can: the most important thing is to carry on reading or looking at books. A great way to escape whilst we're at home!

I have been using this extra time to do lots of reading and my garden has not been this free of weeds for years! I've also been watching more TV than usual and catching up on things I've missed: I don't know what I'll do when 'Race around the World' finishes on Sunday! I'm planning on having a go at making sour dough bread this week so have been watching Jamie Oliver's video on YouTube on starting my culture in readiness - I'll let you know how that goes. Maybe it will be our next Student Centre Enterprise....!

I speak to Mrs Cooper, Mrs Evans and Mrs Deegan a couple of times a week. They like to hear how you are all doing too.

Look after yourselves, stay safe and I look forward to seeing you all soon but in the meantime, I'll be phoning each week for a catch up.

Yours,

Tracy Gardiner
